Kent Scientific Travel Award - AALAS 2016

Kent Scientific is yet again holding a Travel Award for two (2) lucky people to attend the National AALAS 2016 meeting. This award is intended to recognize laboratory animal science professionals who ensure that animals in research receive the highest quality of care. Whether you're a principal investigator, veterinary technician, husbandry specialist or animal care technician, your dedication, passion and contribution to improving the length and quality of our lives does not go unnoticed.

This is an excellent opportunity for those who would normally not attend the meeting, allowing them to broaden their experience through workshops, lectures, poster sessions and exhibits.

Meeting Information:
AALAS 2016
Charlotte, NC
October 30 - November 3, 2016
Each winner will be awarded a check for $1,000 to cover costs of attending AALAS. The winners must be present at the meeting to receive their award.

Requirements to Apply:

- Open to U.S. residents who are laboratory animal science professionals (e.g. Animal Care Technicians, Veterinary Technicians, Principal Investigators, etc.)
- Application Deadline: July 8, 2016
