

Public Awareness and Regulatory Affairs News
Wednesday April 10th

PSBR is searching for volunteers for the following events;

1. NGG Public Seminar Series: UPenn's Neuroscience Graduate Group is hosting a neuroscience public lecture on Thursday, April 18 at 6pm. The theme is: Ethical Considerations in Modern Neuroscience. Flyer and details the event can be found here: <https://www.upenn.edu/ngg/publiclecture>. PSBR is setting up a booth at this event to showcase the organization; PSBR would love to have your support by staffing the table and engaging with the audience.

2. "When I Grow Up Career Expo" - The Hatboro-Horsham School District is having a career fair on Saturday, April 27th from 10am-2pm. PSBR is looking for volunteers to staff the table and tell the students about careers in Biomedical Science. Here is a link that showcases the event. <https://youtu.be/dM8isPESrnY>. If you are interested, please reach out to David Garbe via email (david@psbr.org) for additional details!

3. Philadelphia Science Festival
